

Membership Agreement

Introduction

Welcome to the Khyber Pukhtoon Welfare Association (KPWA), a not-for-profit organisation dedicated to supporting the Pakhtun community in the UK. This Membership Agreement sets forth the terms under which membership to KPWA is granted, highlighting our mutual commitment to the welfare and support of our members.

1. Membership Eligibility and Application

- Eligibility: Membership is open exclusively to individuals of Pukhtoon/Pakhtun ethnicity, ensuring a focused support system for our community.
- Application: Applicants are required to submit a detailed form, including personal and dependent information, medical conditions, and familial connections within the association – all applications are subject to approval by the cabinet. All decisions are final and non-appealable.

2. Membership Fees and Contributions

- Annual Membership Fee: £50, applicable equally to individual and family memberships, as determined at the AGM.
- Joining Fee: A one-off fee of £50 for individuals and £100 for families is required, facilitating the initiation of the membership benefits.
- Emergency Contributions: Members may be requested to contribute up to £1000 in exceptional circumstances, subject to executive committee approval.

3. Rights and Responsibilities

Members enjoy rights to vote, participate in AGMs, and contribute to the decision-making process. Responsibilities include timely fee payments, active participation in community initiatives, and adherence to KPWA values.

4. Membership Benefits

KPWA offers financial support for burial costs within the member's borough/council and fixed benefits for burials abroad. Additional support includes moral support, advice, and assistance during illnesses, as detailed in Appendix I: Outline of Membership Benefits. Membership benefits are subject to change by resolution, at the AGM or by cabinet approval.

5. Renewal, Cancellation, and Termination

Annual renewal is mandatory for continued membership. Cancellations must be submitted in writing within 30 days of renewal, and the executive committee can terminate memberships for non-compliance or misconduct without an appeal process. Non-payment of membership fees when due will be automatic cause for termination of a membership. Once a membership has been terminated or cancelled, the individual/family's rejoining will be subject to resubmitting a new application.

6. Dispute Resolution

Disputes within the KPWA community may be raised with the cabinet or executive committee for review. Cabinet decisions are final and binding, ensuring a clear and authoritative resolution process.

7. Data Protection and Privacy

KPWA is committed to GDPR compliance, securely managing personal data with access restricted to executive members only, underscoring our dedication to member privacy.

8. Communication Preferences

KPWA prefers environmentally friendly communication methods, such as SMS and email, for efficiency and sustainability. Members must provide accurate contact information upon application to facilitate this.

9. Agreement Modifications

Changes to this agreement can be enacted with majority approval at an AGM or extraordinary meeting, with members notified via their preferred communication method.

Conclusion

By applying for KPWA membership, applicants agree to the terms outlined in this agreement, joining a community dedicated to the support and welfare of the Pakhtun people in the UK.
